

Maryland Sheep & Wool Festival
Lamb Carcass & Performance Contest
May 3rd, 2014

The purpose of the lamb carcass and performance contest is to recognize producers of superior lambs; to allow producers to compare their lambs with other breeds and producers; to provide producers with carcass data to make breeding and selection decisions; to demonstrate the use of real time ultrasound technology to determine carcass characteristics of live lambs; and to educate producers and the public about lamb production. Judging is done through weighing and ultrasound scanning of live lambs.

13 lambs were entered in 2014. Congratulations go to the following winners:

1st Place	Grace Meyer	Ellicott City, MD
2nd Place	Donald Pilson	Thurmont, MD
3rd Place	Peter Vorac	Jefferson, MD
